

Austin Hilton Hotel | Austin | June 9-11, 2017

Open to all those interested in psychoanalysis.

Earn up to 17.5 continuing education credits and network with over 500 mental health professionals practicing a wide range of therapies, as well as educators, researchers, and students.

Join us for these timely sessions:

- Opening Session: Race and Borders: Crisis in Contemporary American Identity – A Town Hall Discussion
- Clinical Plenary Address: Dr. Frank Lachmann “On the Compatibility of Religious Orthodoxy and Psychopathology”
- University Forum: The Mexico – Texas Borderland: How It's Been; How It Should Be
- Ticho Memorial Lecture: Dr. Adele Tutter “The Erotics of Knowing”
- Panel I: A Psychoanalytic Perspective on the Gun in American Culture
- Panel II: New Developments and Challenges in the Analyst as Group Therapist: Enactments, Actments, and Unobtrusiveness

Visit apsa.org for more information about the preliminary program, meeting registration, and hotel reservations.

Register between March 28 - May 9 to take advantage of our lowest registration fees.