

MICHIGAN PSYCHOANALYTIC INSTITUTE
EARLY ADMISSIONS 2022 – 2023
COME ALIVE IN PSYCHOANALYSIS
Melvin Bornstein, MD & Richard Frank, MD
February 25, 2023 – March 18, 2023 – 9:00am – 11:00am

FINAL SYLLABUS

Session 1: February 25

Frank, R. (2021) Psychoanalysis is a Rescue Operation. The Taming of the Dishwasher. Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 41 (4-5): 232-282.

Bornstein, M. (2021) Richard's Analysis: From the Other Side. Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 41 (4-5):283-288. Session 2: March 4, 2023

Session 2: March 4

Kris, A. (2021) Love is the Great Educator: Response to Richard Frank and Mel Bornstein. Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 41 (4-5): 289-291.

Session 3 : March 11

Abbassi, A. (2021) From Pain and Pessimism to Joy and Optimism: Remarks on Richard's Analysis. Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 41 (4-5):296-301. (if you didn't read for March 4)

Ferro, A. (2021) How Much Electricity Can a Household Appliance Tolerate? The Litmus Test for the Analytic Field. Psychoanalytic Inquiry, 41(4-5): 302-314.

TED TALK: Clues to a Great Story, Andrew Stanton

https://www.ted.com/talks/andrew_stanton_the_clues_to_a_great_story

Session 4: March 18

1) Two Stories by Haruki Murakami:

“A Shinagawa Monkey” and “Confessions of a Shinagawa Monkey”

2) Richard's Session Process Notes: Anna “The Art of the Deal”